Part 1: Learning about the library

Part 2: Learning how to determine if a source is trustworthy or appropriate

Part 3: Beginning your research. For each book or website you look at, dedicate one note card.
- Side 1 of your note card
  - Include up to 4 key ideas, facts, or quotes you learned from this source
- Side 2 of your note card
  - Use easybib.com to create your citations
  - Copy the citation, exactly as you see it, on one side of your note card

❖ As you’re researching, look for the information (#1-9) below. These are the questions your presentation and outline should address.

1. What is the name of the god or goddess?
2. How was he or she created?
3. Who is he or she related to?
4. What are the god’s responsibilities and/or powers?
5. How is the god or goddess depicted in images from the ancient culture (paintings, sculptures, etc.)? Describe what he or she looks like in these images from the culture. (What does he or she wear?; Is he or she associated with certain colors, fabrics, or materials?)
6. What culture is the god or goddess from?
7. When did people believe in him or her?
8. How did people view the god or goddess?
9. What was his or her importance in everyday life?
10. In your opinion, what do we learn/guess about the culture that believes in this god or goddess?
